WILSON'S ELECTION MAY BE CONTESTED

G. O. P. NATIONAL ORGANIZATION TAKES STEPS TODAY.

WILL CANVASS ALL THE DOUBTFUL STATES

Republicans Admit Efforts May Be Hopeless, But Will Try—How Congress Could Decide.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

New York, Nov. 10.—With Wilson and Marshall the winners on the face of the returns, the Republican National organization today set in motion the machinery to contest their victory. The result will be clouded upon a Democratic victory for at least ten days on face of available information. Action by the Republicans admitted by them seemed hopeless. Charles E. Hughes, to a large extent, directed the plans of the contest.

Government officials in Washington were deeply interested and not a little concerned over today's announcements from Democratic and Republican campaign leaders that contests might be expected, with a possibility of legal proceedings over the votes for presidential electors in several of the close states.

Examinations of the decisions of the supreme court and of the revised statutes disclosed that electors are plainly regarded as state officers.

The revised statutes provide that the electors shall meet in each state and "give their votes" on the second Monday in January following election, at places to be designated by the state legislatures. In the ordinary course of proceedings, where the right of the electors to sit is uncontested, their votes will be counted in the House of Representatives in Washington on the second Wednesday in February.

The statutes further provide that where a state shall have laws made prior to the election, determining methods by which controversies or contests over electors shall be settled, whether by judicial proceedings or otherwise, these laws "shall be binding and shall govern in counting the electoral vote." Officials were under the impression that it would be found that all the states that may be involved in contests have laws of this character.

Aside from the direction that the electoral votes of all the states be counted in the house on the second Wednesday in February there seems to be nothing to indicate just how much latitude a state might have in determining contests so as to have its vote counted at the fixed time. The statutes provide that the votes of the states shall be forwarded to Washington "forthwith" after the electors meet on the second Monday in January, and also say that whenever the certificate of any state as to its electors has not been received in Washington on the fourth Monday in January, a special messenger shall be sent to the district judge in that state, in whose hands one certificate must be lodged, he is required "forthwith" to forward his certificate to the capital.

When congress meets to receive the votes, it is still possible for a majority to reverse the certified results from any state in certain cases. As the

MRS. A. M'MILLAN DIES

Former Resident of Maryville Passes Away at Her Home in Kansas City.

Mrs. America McMillan, 45 years old, died Thursday at her home, 4406 Main street. She has formerly Miss America Foster of the Kansas side, a daughter of the late T. K. Foster. She was well known in music circles on the Kansas side. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. T. K. Foster, and her husband, J. W. McMillan. Funeral services have not been arranged, but burial will be in Leavenworth.—Kansas City Times.

Mrs. McMillan was a resident of Maryville a short time several years ago, when she had a large class in voice. She had been teaching in St. Joseph and Kansas City since leaving Maryville.

ST. JOSEPH TO CELEBRATE

Monroe Club Plans Monster Rally in Honor of President—Democrats to Go From Here.

The Monroe club of St. Joseph is planning to hold a celebration in that city tomorrow night in honor of the re-election of President Wilson. The officers of the club have extended an invitation to the Democrats of this city and county to attend this celebration, and want the Democrats to bring the Maryville band. All Democrats who can attend this meeting are urged to telephone County Chairman M. E. Ford, who will make arrangements for transportation. If there is a sufficient number, probably a special train will be scheduled to return late Saturday night to Maryville.

All from this part of the state, and a large number from northeastern Kansas will attend the meeting.

MAKING OFFICIAL COUNT

County Court Busy Casting Up Returns of Tuesday's Election—40 Absentee Votes In.

The county court, with Deputy County Clerk Calvin Burch, commenced this afternoon in casting up the returns of Tuesday's election. It is figured that it will take the greater part of today and tomorrow.

The absentee votes cast at the election are now being received by County Clerk Fred Yeomans. Up to this afternoon forty of these ballots had been received. These votes will be received up to Saturday noon, when they will be counted and the results placed to the credit of the candidates who received them.

These absentee votes with the official count will probably effect the close race between George S. Miller and Joseph E. Reese. According to unofficial returns received by The Democrat-Forum Tuesday night, Miller was ahead only 13 votes.

ENDORSE JUDGE STONE.

Members of County Bar Urge Appointment of Independence Man.

The members of the bar of this county are endorsing Judge Kimbrough Stone of Independence as judge of the federal court in the eastern district of Missouri to take the place of Judge Adams who died recently at his home in St. Louis.

The rain of Tuesday and Wednesday amounted to 1.81 inches.

GARDNER ELECTED

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE IS LEADING LAMM BY 2,462 VOTES.

TWO COUNTIES STILL OUT

John Gordon Defeated for State Auditor—Prohibition Lost by a Big Vote.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

St. Louis, Nov. 10.—Col. Fred D. Gardner for governor has been elected beyond a doubt. He was 2,462 votes ahead of Judge Henry Lamm, with Barry and Dade counties still missing. A report from Dade county says Lamm will probably get a plurality of 350 there. Barry county is figured as about a stand-off.

John Gordon for state auditor has been defeated.

The vote for Gardner, with these two counties missing, was 367,211, and Lamm's vote 364,749.

The entire Democratic state ticket except Gordon for state auditor, had such a lead on returns from approximately two-thirds of the precincts in the state that the election of all except Gordon seemed removed from doubt.

One of the proposed amendments carried—that authorizing the legislature to pension the blind. In 1,255 precincts is received 207,078, while the negative vote was 162,440.

Prohibition and the land bank amendment were badly defeated. On prohibition 1,853 precincts gave 139,766 for and 264,398 against. On the land bank amendment 1,255 precincts gave 158,472 for and 201,280 against.

For the Kansas City court of appeals, Ewing C. Bland had a lead of 21,000 over Landon, Republican.

CARS IN CENTER OF STREET

Street Committee and Mayor Marking Main Street This Afternoon.

Automobiles will be parked in the middle of the streets hereafter, according to Mayor A. S. Robey. The street committee, with the mayor, is marking the blocks on Main from First to Sixth streets.

A space sixteen feet wide is being marked off and seven feet will be allowed for each car. The markings will be painted with heavy white lines.

Much complaint has been made lately about the automobiles in front of business houses, and this new plan will do away with the congestion of cars on Main street. Several cities are using this plan with success, among them Bedford, Ia.

HIS FIRST BALLOT IN 1844

J. M. Sayler Has Been Voting for Seventy-Two Years—Is 93 Years Old.

Nodaway township had the distinction of receiving a vote Tuesday from a man who has voted for seventy-two years, casting his first ballot in 1844, when 21 years of age. This man is J. M. Sayler, who is now making his home with his son, W. G. Sayler, in Burlington Junction. He is past 93 years old and is a staunch Republican. At the time of the civil war Mr. Sayler was living in Illinois. He was a middle aged man then and his oldest son, Joseph H. Sayler, enlisted in the federal army. Although nearing the century mark, J. M. Sayler spends a great deal of time with books and papers. He has always been a man of high principles and sterling worth—the kind of a man that has helped to make the United States the foremost nation in the world.—Burlington Junction Post.

URGE SENDING EARLY RETURNS.

Secretary of State Says That County Clerks May Facilitate Vote Count.

County Clerk Fred Yeomans received a letter from Secretary of State Cornelius Roach this morning, urging him to send in the election returns as soon as possible, so that the official count can be made. The law forbids the opening of any of the returns until all have been received, and for this reason it is important that the county clerks get their returns in this week.

Quitman Show Nov. 23, 24 and 25.

The Quitman Poultry Association will hold their show at Quitman on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 23, 24 and 25. A good list of premiums is being offered in addition to two cups. A silver cup will be given by the state association and a silver cup by the "Useful Poultry Journal."

FIRST TO FILE EXPENSES

Charles Hyslop, Defeated Republican Candidate, Spent $141.10 in Conducting Campaign for Election.

Charles Hyslop, defeated candidate for representative, was the first to file his expense account for ths recent political campaign. The affidavit as received by Dan R. Baker, county recorder, includes the following items: Filing fee, $5; Republican central committee, $75; stationery and postage, $51; advertising, $24.10, and cigars, $6. The total expenditure was $141.10.

UP TO LEGISLATURE

THE PROHIBITIONISTS PLAN A HARD CAMPAIGN THIS WINTER.

CONTROL HOUSE-SENATE

Two Bills Will Be Introduced, One Forbidding Manufacture of Liquor, Other Preventing Its Sale.

The huge dry vote throughout Missouri was followed up by sweeping dry victories in the legislative fight, dry leaders in Missouri claim, so that the state-wide prohibition battle has been merely transferred to Jefferson City before the legislature.

Although complete returns are not in yet, G E. Bertch, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League for Western Missouri, at Kansas City, said today: "We have a working majority in the senate and a huge majority in the house. We have elected 101, possibly more, of the 142 in the lower house."

Drys Have the Senate, Too.

Dr. Bertch would not give figures on the senate until all the returns from the senatorial fights were in, but indicated the drys expected a certain majority of two members in that body with possibly two more. The drys believe that the senate stands 19 dry, 15 wet.

Center on Two Bills.

The drys will for the first time drop regulatory measures in a large degree and center their drive on straight out and out prohibition. They will concentrate on two bills:

One prohibiting the sale of liquor in the state.

One prohibiting the manufacture of liquor in the state.

As a result, there will be a wet and dry battle at Jefferson City this winter that will surpass anything in the history of the state. It will unquestionably overshadow every other legislative question. The old wet leader, the late Col. William Phelps of Jasper county, who died, will be missing from the wet side, but Harry B. Hawes of St. Louis, who has been elected to the legislature from St. Louis, will doubtless take the wet leadership.

Select Leaders in Caucus.

The drys have not announced their leaders yet. They may await a caucus of the dry members. But it is evident now the wet and dry line-up of the members will be much more sharp than the Republican and Democratic party lines division. A great battle will be waged for control of the organization of both house and senate in order to control the naming of the committees as the fate of the prohibitory measures may be decided in committee.

There is a question whether Colonel Gardner would sign a prohibition measure or not. In the campaign he said he would not sign a bill that did not provide for a referendum vote to the people. The drys doubtless will attempt to pass a prohibition measure which sets a day for a special election, so Missouri can vote wet or dry, and have no other issues involved.

The wet majority in the state, it is estimated, will be between 60,000 and 75,000. Drys say it will be under 50,000.

To Decide on Local Option Campaign.

Regarding local option in Kansas City, Dr. Bertch said the "drys" had plenty of time to decide on their fight and circulate petitions. The law provides no election can be held for sixty days, so petitions filed December 10 would be in plenty of time for a January vote.

"We need only 10 per cent of the voters' names on the petitions," Dr. Bertch said. "We can get those 6,500 signatures in one day."

FIRST M. E. BAZAAR

COMMITTEES CHOSEN FOR ANNUAL EVENT, NOV. 16 AND 17.

WILL SERVE MEALS, TOO

Women of Church Have Prepared Tempting Dinner and Supper Menus for Both Days.

The Ladies' Aid of the First Methodist church completed plans for their bazaar yesterday afternoon at their regular monthly meeting. Mrs. H. E. Wright, president of the Ladies' Aid, in charge of the arrangements, appointed the following committees, who will have charge of the booths and assist in the selling of the articles.

The bazaar will be held in the basement of the church next Thursday and Friday. It is planned to have the booths open until 9 o'clock Thursday and to close immediately after supper on Friday.

Six booths will be arranged to display the wares of the bazaar, a fancy work booth, a useful article booth, a Pyrex ware booth, an aluminum booth, a handkerchief booth and a candy booth. In charge of these booths will be:

Fancy work booth—Mrs. C. C. Corwin, Mrs. George Bellows, Mrs. Frank Compton and Mrs. O. C. Hanna.

Useful article booth—Mrs. Mary Hook, Mrs. S. J. DeArmond, Mrs. J. C. Archer and Mrs. L. L. Holbrook.

Pyrex ware booth—Mrs. Catherine Miller.

Aluminum booth—Normal student.

Handkerchief booth—Miss Edna O'Neal.

Candy booth—Miss Ruth Matter and Mrs. Bert Cooper.

In the fancy work booth the women will display all sorts of ornamental articles for Christmas, birthday and wedding gifts, together with a number of things indispensable to the wardrobe of any girl or woman.

In the useful article booth there will be an exhibit of things useful rather than ornamental. This will include all kinds of work aprons, comforts, stocking bags, laundry bags and kitchen aids of all sorts.

The Pyrex booth will introduce to the housewife the new Pyrex ware, or glassware used for baking. Dishes for baking and individual molds of various sizes will be on display in this section.

The aluminum booth will be conducted by a Normal school student who will demonstrate the superiority of the aluminum utensils by cooking appetizing morsels for the visitors.

The handkerchief booth is the work of the Epworth League, whose members have been busy for the last few weeks soliciting handkerchiefs. In addition to the large assortment of handkerchiefs, plain cushions will also be sold.

The candy booth will be decorated in a way that will best bring out the sweet qualities of the exhibit. The women of the church will bring the products of their favorite recipes to this booth which promises to be one of the most popular for young and old.

Dinner and supper will be served in the dining room both days, and will be in charge of Mrs. E. F. Wolfert. On the first day the women will demonstrate their culinary powers by a tempting array of delicacies of which chicken will be the principal drawing card.

On the second day roast meat will take the place of chicken on the menu.

The women are working hard to make the bazaar a success, and hope for the liberal patronage of the public.

At a late hour today there seemed to be absolutely no question of President Wilson's re-election. California was conceded to Wilson by the Republican state chairman, and this afternoon a dispatch from San Francisco stated that with only 36 missing precincts Wilson had 465,669 and Hughes 462,538, giving Wilson a final lead of 3,131.

New Mexico seems also to have been surely carried by Wilson. With only 72 precincts missing this afternoon Wilson had 33,435 and Hughs 31,212, giving Wilson a lead there of 2,233. Wilson's lead in New Mexico has been growing today, and the remaining precincts cannot change the lead.

New Hampshire, which has been playing hide and seek with both candidates, comes back today with a majority of 239 for Wilson. With only nine out of 294 precincts missing, Wilson has 42,284 and Hughes 42,045.

West Virginia has been carried by Hughes.

Minnesota seems also to have been carried by Hughes by a very small majority. With only 54 precincts missing out of 3,024, Wilson has 176,233 and Hughes 177,090, giving Hughes a lead of 857. Minnesota has 2,138 National Guardsmen on the Mexican border, who, under the laws of Minnesota, are entitled to vote. The majority of these are said to be for Wilson, but it is not known whether their vote will change the lead given Mr. Hughes by the home vote.

Wilson has without doubt 269 electoral votes without New Mexico or New Hampshire. New Mexico has 3 votes and New Mampshire has 4. He has now enough in sight to stand the loss of a divided vote from some state, which is not probable.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 10.—With the election of Wilson and Marshall settled for all practical purposes, Indiana's two vice presidential candidates continue to "sit tight and say nothing" today. Both Mr Marshall and Mr. Fairbanks refuse to make any comment.

HIGH PRICES FOR CROPS

New Corn Selling for 75 and 80 Cents From the Field—Corn 15 Bushels to the Acre.

Not since the close of the civil war have grain crops brought the producer the prices that they are selling at this year. The great demand for all grain as foodstuffs and the short crops over the greater part of the farming country has boosted the price much higher than was even predicted for later in the season.

New corn is selling out of the fields in Nodaway county for 75 cents a bushel—and not much to buy. Some are receiving 80 cents and this is probably becoming the general price. The crop is light all over the corn belt, which has helped to boost the selling figure. In the larger markets it has been bringing over a dollar a bushel. Much of the corn is not making more than fifteen bushels to the acre, some running even less. There are also some fields of real good corn in the country but they are few.

The wheat crop was also a disappointment this year, but good wheat is bringing record breaking prices. The demand was never so great and the short crop over much of the great wheat belt in the west and north has put the price to a figure which makes one dizzy to look at.—Burlington Junction Post.

WILSON'S ELECTION

votes are read to the joint session, the statutes give the right to any member of either house to object, the objection to be considered in separate session. Where only one return has been made from a state, congress cannot overturn the certified result, except the two houses concurrently may reject any vote where it appears not to have been given by the properly chosen electors. Where more than one certificate for a state has been sent, the vote of those electors who the two houses shall concurrently decide have been supported in a contest by the proper state authorities, shall be received and accredited. Where there has been no determination of a contest by state authorities, and there is more than one certificate returned, the choice as to those properly selected is with the two houses. If the two houses disagree, the certificate signed by the executive of a state concerned shall be binding and the votes so certified counted.

The constitution provides that where an election is thrown into the house, a selection must be made by March 4 following the election, but this apparently is intended only to cover cases where there is a tie, and whether it applies to those where there is a dispute over electors from a state or states is not clear.

Should contests and recounts over territories' elections, before state canvassing boards, or in state courts, consume such time that the governors would be unable to certify the final result by the time congress meets in February, it was believed by legal experts that the final canvass could be held open until March 4, and that a selection would be made by that time.

In the Hayes-Tilden contest of 1876, before a joint congressional commission, it was held that the states, and not the federal government, provide the means for verification of the returns on votes cast for electors.

issued a statement giving formal notice that they will demand a recount in the close states before the election of Wilson will be conceded by them.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 10.—A canvass of the situation today developed the fact that there is a chance for the contest over the electoral vote being carried into the house of representatives. Republican leaders have been going over the situation with a corps of able constitutional lawyers and searching the statutes for grounds on which to contest the election.

It has been suggested that with the house very close, if the election could be thrown into the house there would be as hard a struggle there between Wilson and Hughes as at the polls. It is figured by some that if a deadlock could be brought about in the house it would force the senate to choose one of the vice presidential candidates to fill the office of chief executive until 1920. With the present complexion of the senate it would, of course, be Vice President Marshall.

THE TURNING POINT between economy and waste lies in your judgment of what constitutes real value. We advise you not to be too hasty to decide that a low price is a criterion on big value. It is often just the contrary. The prices we charge for real estate may not be as low as some, but they represent real values, and as low as possible for desirable property. If you pay less you won't get as good. This is absolutely certain.

AS VILLA LOOKS

HUNDREDS OF PHOTOS FAIL TO PORTRAY REAL BANDIT

HAS PECULIAR GLANCE

Head and Neck Recall Pictures of Roman Gladiators—Skin Light Brown, But Mottled.

(By EDMOND E. BEHR)

Field Headquarters, Punitive Expedition, Mexico, Nov. 8., by motor truck train to Columbus, N. M.—Although hundreds of photographs of him have been printed in American newspapers, hardly one shows Francisco Villa as he really is in the flesh.

Mechanical limitations prevent, for instance, an adequate picture of the notorious bandit's eyes—those yellowish, brown eyes, before which hundreds of Mexicans have quailed. His eye balls protrude from their sockets more than the average man's. The whites are bloodshot. When he is angry the blood rushes to his eyes until they appear almost red. When he is in a crowd Villa's gaze shifts like lightning to every part of the compass, possibly on guard against some would-be assassin; but when he is alone with a man, Villa's eyes bore through him like a knife.

Villa is five feet, ten inches in height. He is heavy-limbed and thick-chested. His arms are unusually long. They are out of proportion to the rest of his body and reach nearly to his knees. His hands, oddly enough, are as soft as a woman's. When he shakes hands, his grasp is flabby. He weighs about 180 pounds.

His head and neck recall pictures of Roman gladiators. His neck is as thick as a man's thigh and very short. His head is large—a little too large for the rest of his body. It is crowned by black, curly hair which he rarely brushes. A bald spot is beginning to appear at the top. The forehead is the one redeeming feature of his countenance; it is high and well formed.

His skin is light brown, but mottled with dark patches, evidently the result of many years spent in the open. His ears are large and ugly. His nose is wide-nostriled, but small. His cheeks are fat.

The mouth reveals all of the savage cruelty and cunning of the man. The short upper lip does not conceal a set of scraggly, dark stained teeth. The shortness of this lip, which rarely touches the lower, makes it appear that Villa was always grinning. The thickness of both lips gives him a beastial, sensual expression that is heightened by the slow almost ponderous manner in which he moves about. A long stern chin and a lower jaw that protrudes disclose the inherent cruelty in him.

A strange contrast to the rest of his physical make-up is Villa's voice. It is high-pitched and weak except when he shouts orders. Most of the time, though, it is a peculiar blend of a whine and a drawl. To hear it and not see the speaker, one would think a ten-year-old child were speaking.

His strength is a by-word among his fellows. He has been known to pick up and set on its feet a smaal mule that had slipped and fallen while dragging a caisson through miry roads.

Native refugees arriving at this camp from the south say he is heavier now than he ever was before. He wears a beard several inches long and limps from the wound he received at Guerrero last March. Most of the time he uses a crutch, which is strapped to the side of his saddle when he mounts a horse.

Mrs. J. Q. Milliams went to Craig, Mo., today, called there by the illness of H. B. Williams.

CONGRESS TO BE FRIENDLY

Latest Returns Show That Majority in Senate Will Be Democratic, Close in the House.

The latest election returns today assure President Wilson in the forthcoming administration of a friendly congress. The Democratic majority in the senate is decided, and will not vary much from the present party strength there. The Democrats have lost senators in Maine, West Virginia, Indiana, New Jersey and New York, but have gained senators in Rhode Island, Delaware, Utah, Wyoming and perhaps in other western states. This will give the Democrats a majority in the senate of about 12 votes.

In the house, however, the indications are that it will be very close. The latest returns give the Democrats 215, the Republicans 221, with 2 Progressives, 1 independent and 1 Socialist. In addition to this there are five districts in doubt. There is also a possibility that two districts in Nebraska credited to the Republicans will be represented by Democrats, and the same is true of two districts in Iowa. The indications are also that the Democrats will get one in New Mexico and one or two in New Hampshire.

BATTLE ON IN DOBRUDJA

Fight Between Russo-Rumanians and German Allies Continue With no Quarter on Either Side.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

London, Nov. 10.—Terrific efforts are being made by the Russo-Rumania forces in Dobrudja to recapture the Cernadovia-Constanza railroad from the German allies.

A Petrograd dispatch stated that Mackensen's army had been driven back to a point only ten miles from the railroad. Heavy losses were inflicted by the Russo-Rumanian troops on the German allies with but few prisoners taken in a bloody battle, neither side giving nor asking quarter. Violent fighting still continues in the Carpathians.

Ten German Subs Down.

Paris, Nov. 10.—In the air combats fought over the French front yesterday ten German machines were shot down.

Duelling on Somme.

Paris, Nov. 10.—Heavy artillery duels took place on both the Somme and Verdun fronts last night. The Germans are still trying to shell the French out of Fort Vaux.

Still Working on Their Lines.

The Maryville Electric Light and Power company has a large force of men at work on the lines between Burlington Junction and the county seat and will give our town a full twenty-four hour service just as soon as possible. Another force is at work on the Clearmont line and another force on the Ravenwood line.—Burlington Junction Post.

People of the Christian faith in the United States, by the census of 1916, numbered 75-100,000, of whom 11 million were Roman Cathalics. # TO CLEAN SILVER

GOVERNMENT ISSUES BULLETIN OF INTEREST TO HOUSEWIVES

METHOD QUITE SIMPLE

Boil Dirty Silver in Soda and Salt Solution in Contact With Clean Piece of Aluminum.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Government specialists in home economics, after several months' study of how to clean tarnished silverware, today issued through the department of agriculture a special bulletin of vital interest to millions of American housewives. The procedure recommended is so simple that it may be followed successfully in practically every home.

The easy cleaning method is simply boiling the dirty piece of silver in a soda and salt solution in contact with a clean piece of aluminum or zinc.

The tarnish on silver is not due to oxidation, but is dependent entirely upon the action of sulphur, the bulletin states. In most cases the source of the sulphur causing tarnish is rubber, wool, foods like eggs, and the sulphur in the air due to burning illuminating gas and coal.

This tarnish of silver sulphid is slightly soluble in the hot solution employed. It is broken down chemically and its silver content redeposited on the ware when the proper electrical conditions prevail. The presence of both the silver and the aluminum or zinc in the hot solution provides the necessary electrical conditions. Under this method, therefore, practically all the silver in the tarnish is returned to the object being cleaned. When silver polishes are used, on the other hand, all the silver in combination in the tarnish is removed.

In the cleaning method recommended by the department, the necessary materials are a graniteware cooking utensil deep enough to allow the silverware to be covered by the solution; a clean piece of aluminum or zinc, preferably the former; and baking or washing soda. The solution, consisting of a teaspoonful of baking or washing soda and a like amount of table salt to each quart of water, is brought to boil in a graniteware or enameled utensil. A sheet of aluminum or clean zinc is dropped in. The tarnished silverware is then immersed in the solution so that it is in contact with the sheet of aluminum or zinc. The tarnish should disappear in a few seconds. The silver object should then be removed from the solution, rinsed and dried with a soft cloth.

Aluminum is much more satisfactory than zinc for use in this cleaning process since it does not become coated with a layer of carbonates which would interfere with the chemical reaction. Zinc does form carbonates, and, if used, must be cleaned frequently in dilute hydrochloric acid.

Utensils which would later be used in cooking operations should never be employed in cleaning silverware by the electrolytic method. If very large pieces of silver are to be cleaned and a container is required larger than can be placed conveniently on the stove, the hot solution may be poured into such a vessel and the silver object then immersed. The method is most effective, however, when the solution boils during the cleaning process.

The electrolytic method gives the cleaned silver a satiny finish after several cleanings. If a burnished surface is desired, the silver must from time to time be polished lightly with some abrasive polishing material such as powdered whiting.

RECIPE FOR HAPPINENS

Dr. Barker of Washington Says to Look on the Bright Side of Every Experience.

Special to The Democrat-Forum.

Chicago, Nov. 10.—The man who made ex-President William H. Taft slimmer—Dr. Charles E. Barker of Washington—gave the following recipe for happiness in an address here:

"Look on the bright side of every experience. Accept cheerfully the place in which you find yourself today. Throw your soul into your work. Do as many little kindnesses as possible each day. Maintain a child-like attitude of trust in your God.

"The rich, as a class, are the most unhappy people on earth because they think they can buy happiness, like a commodity on the market. Poor people frequently are happy, not because of their poverty, but because they have found the laws of happiness.

"Happiness does not depend upon externals at all. It is dependent upon laws that can be learned and obeyed."

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "logny" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

NEWS FROM ALL Northwest [illegible]ri

A very unusual legal controversy is reported by the Excelsior Springs Call. The case of Smith vs. Stephens grows out of the loss of $60, three $20 bills, which Mr. Smith states he lost on the streets a few weeks ago. At that time Mr. Smith inserted an advertisement in the Call offering a reward for the return of the money if found. The same day Mrs. Stephens also advertised the loss of $60—in bills of the same denomination. Some one found $60 and returned it to Mrs. Stephens. Now Smith asserts that it was his money that was thus found and returned to the wrong person.

A new method of making the newspaper pay dividends even in times of high priced paper was tried out in Clay county last week. "The North Kansas City Advertiser," which was expected to make its appearance last Friday, failed to show up. An inquiry at the Centropolis Hotel, where the "editor" was stopping, secured the information that he had left for the west without ordering his mail forwarded. The clerk says that the stranger was an advance agent for some stranded theatrical company and that while marooned in North Kansas City he probably secured $200 in advance payments on subscriptions and advertising. The new paper was to have been printed every Friday, and when it failed to appear some practical joker printed a little sheet on a mimeograph and mailed it to several of the men who had been stung. Of course, the victims enjoyed the joke.

Whether it may be taken as evidence of the high cost of living or the high cost of loving, the Princeton Post records the fact that a Mercer county young man last week paid $24.60 for a cake to bestow upon his sweetheart as the prettiest girl at a pie social.

Twelve hours was the time required for a message from Edinburgh, Scotland, to reach the home of A. C. Kelly at Princeton, Mo. It was just a friendly message from Mr. Kelly's son, who is a student at the famous Scotland university city. It came by wireless to Sayreville, N. J., station and thence by telegraph to Princeton.

President E. R. Ripley of the Santa Fe Railway company has announced that the Santa Fe line will be extended from Carrollton through Keytesville and Moberly to Mexico, whence the Santa Fe trains will be run into St. Louis over the Burlington tracks.

Nick Glover of Princeton is in the toils of the law at St. Joseph charged with complicity in swindling Boone Fancher, a Holt county farmer, out of $10,000. It is said to be the same old sure-thing horse race tip that induced Fancher to draw ten thousand good iron men out of the bank and hand over to the quick fortune experts.

In a pin cushion among the personal effects of Mrs. William Radell, who died at Chillicothe recently, her administrator found $1,966.15 in currency and silver. Elsewhere in the little room above the bakery where the woman lived and worked they found similar deposits. The total amount thus found in cash about the premises was $9,145.15.

After a continuous residence of 59 years in Oregon, Mrs. Mary Philbrick Curry, one of the grand pioneer mothers of Holt county, passed peacefully away last Saturday morning, November 4, aged 86 years. It was in Oregon that this good woman cared for her little family while the husband and father served his country during the Civil War, and it was in Oregon that she has lived an everyday life which in strength of character and sweetness of spirit has been a valuable example to all about her. Among the children who survive her, the oldest son, Tom Curry, recently rounded out his 33rd year as junior editor of the Holt County Sentinel.
